Safer Spaces Policy

As an inclusive, innovative, and diverse festival, SkirtsAfire Society is committed to creating a healthy, harassment-free, safer space for everyone involved to work, create, and attend. We welcome all people of all ethnicities, genders, sexual orientations, and abilities.

SkirtsAfire Society (SkirtsAfire) has developed a Policy and Procedures to prevent harassment and violence, and to quickly and effectively respond to any incidents that might occur. This Policy and Procedures are provided to artists and venues along with contracts, and is available on the SkirtsAfire website.

This document will continue to evolve to meet the growing needs of our community. Please direct any questions or concerns to Brienne Jang, and we, or our third party partner, the Sexual Violence Advocacy and Accountability Network (SVAAN) will respond as quickly as we can.

- Managing Director | Brianne Jang | 780 994 7288 | manager@skirtsafire.com

A) If You Experience Harassment or Violence

If you experience harassment or violence:

1. Tell the person that their behaviour is unwelcome and ask them to stop.
2. Keep a record of incidents (date, times, locations, possible witnesses, what happened, your response). You do not have to have a record of events in order to make a complaint, but a record can strengthen your case and help you remember details.
3. Make a complaint. If, after asking the person to stop their behaviour, the harassment continues, report the problem to a member of the SkirtsAfire team listed above.

You also have the right to contact the Alberta Human Rights Commission to make a complaint of sexual harassment and you can report any incident of assault that has occurred to the police.

B) If You Witness Harassment or Violence or Someone Discloses to You

If you witness harassment or violence or someone discloses an incident of harassment or violence to you:

1. Respond to the Situation

If you are able and feel safe to do so you can:

- A. Address the situation head-on and address the problematic behaviour. Calmly explain your concerns and specify what you'd like the person to do instead.
or
- B. De-escalate the situation by changing the subject.

If you do not feel able and safe to address the situation, get someone else involved and move on to Step 3. Report the Problematic Behaviour to a SkirtsAfire Team Member.

2. Support the Survivor

Respond with compassion and support. Ask how you can help, and give the option of the survivor accompanying you in reporting the problematic behaviour to SkirtsAfire.

3. Report the Problematic Behaviour to a SkirtsAfire Team Member

If the survivor wishes to report the problematic behaviour, describe what happened, who was involved, and any actions that were taken.

INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES

If a member of the SkirtsAfire team witnesses or is informed of harassment or violence they will:

1. Respond with compassion and support. Ask how you can help, and explore options and supports with the survivor.
2. Keep all complaints strictly confidential within the organization, unless otherwise discussed with the survivor (e.g. reporting to the police).
3. Once the survivor is in a safer space, gather information about what happened and determine next actions. This may include removing a person from the venue or organization, for the remainder of the event, festival, or indefinitely.
4. The survivor, the person with the problematic behaviour, and any witnesses may be interviewed.
5. If the survivor chooses at any point, the organization may defer to the police if a comprehensive investigation is required.
