SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

What is SkirtsAfire Festival?

Founded by a volunteer board of artists and arts enthusiasts in 2012, SkirtsAfire Festival is a theatre and multidisciplinary arts festival featuring the work of women. We present powerful and insightful stories to a diverse audience that is hungry to be moved by passionate performances and exhibitions. Programming reflects the true diversity of the thriving arts community in Alberta and Canada, and is adaptive in its approach in order to remain responsive to the needs of artists and audiences.

Our Mission

SkirtsAfire is a theatre and multidisciplinary arts festival that empowers women, welcomes everyone, and uplifts the voices of underrepresented artists, both on-stage and off-stage.

Why a festival featuring and elevating the work of women?

The festival was created in response to the severe underrepresentation of professional women in the arts and works to celebrate and elevate the profile of women artists in Edmonton, Alberta, across Canada and beyond. No other festival in Edmonton currently focuses its efforts solely on supporting the work of women artists. Since our humble beginnings in 2012, we are finding our festival more relevant now than ever before and are proud to offer a platform for all the talented women in the arts here in Edmonton. SkirtsAfire Festival values diversity in the artists we represent and therefore welcomes artists of all diverse backgrounds, including cis and trans women, non-binary people, the 2SLGBTQIA+ community, and of all ethnicities and all abilities.

When and where does it happen?

Running in conjunction with International Women's Day in early March each year, and embracing Edmonton's winter city spirit, SkirtsAfire Festival takes place over 10 days at various venues in Old Strathcona with pop-up performances and installations around Whyte Avenue.

We need your help!
